

No, and taking an L. I. I can't do anything against his and a metropolitan. "Fats," said the fellow who went to Henry Matthews, "is smart."

A chap once came to the foundation house to find board and better, and he got a good deal of the chance to do so, he is seldom much afterwards, no matter whether he to rescue, jumps overboard, or is the rescue of his boys a cruelly old eleven thousand of them lived in Ark, in two days, lately.

We are credibly informed that the metaphysics are manifesting strong sympathy known Nothingisms. Will some one say why this is? It is said that the new age organized Known Nothing lodges, and that the new age is manifesting

The Boston Journal in its anti-slavery researches, has discovered that the first person who killed a whale upon this coast was William Hamilton, a native of Scotland, who in 1791 settled on Cape Cod, but being persecuted by the inhabitants, one who declared in evil spirit, he consequently removed to Rhode Island, and finally to Connecticut.

[illegible]

He died, he then put his hand to the side of his uniform, and brought forth a kitten, quite a kitten, and presented it to a stenographer, who intends to take care of it, the result of the battle of Alma.

Howell complained to Johnson that he was of the company the day before he lost his head ache. "No, sir, it was not," said Johnson.

...when we put into it." • He sends a note on the head "P." • Yes, sir, on heads to it." • They say that Irish and Scotch lazes to be of £250,000 sterling, or over a mil- lion dollars, are sent every year to the States, where most of them are sold under the name of "Valenciennes." • "Marcellus."

[illegible]

on Monday week, Captain Herman Peterson was tried before the United States Court at Boston, Massachusetts, for an assault and battery on the deck of the vessel, with a gun-dag.

Columel Benton is announced to lecture in Baltimore on the 12th of December, on the subject of the "Pacific Railroad."

The joys of Paradise among our Satyrists considered principally in the tallest of fights. In their Paradise, called "Edia," the departed spirits, as soon as they are deceased, went up to fight with each other.

T. D. Jones, the sculptor, has been selected to execute the proposed colossal bronze statue of "Tom Corwin." The statue is to cost from $15,000 to $25,000.

James W. Bennett, of Great Falls, N. H., was arrested recently on a charge of having two wives. He has been to California, and says he forgot the impression that his "old wife" was made by the white girl who had left him to go to France.

REPORTED CURE.—A cure reported in Philadelphia and received at New York.

they pitched into each other with pipes, iron chains, and smaller weapons of the harem were literally hacked by these combatants, but because no danger recovered from such trifling accidents immediately, and at the close of the whole assembly returned to Val de la Chapelle, where they were waiting for the next day.

The next day was passed in another session to all eternity. What a place that would be for our modern people. How they would enjoy themselves in heaven as that.

---

Matthew has gone to Madison for his health. He is going to stay at the old Temperance school trust to Modern for relief.

The bill case of Fry vs. Bennett, which resulted in a verdict of $10,000 damages, has been before the Superior Court of New York on a motion for a new trial, and it has been refused.

Many Oregonians have been elected to the according to the Boston Transcript, taking the local "several" capitalists and some Congressmen, have also been elected.

A city member of Pute's has the following list of certain members of the Cabinet: Mr. Frank Stanton, when he buys a bundle of apparatus, begins by dividing it into three bundles—John Russell, being among anything, it would be, and Charles Smith, who is mentioned in the list. He will not even take

[illegible]

The letter was torn up before it came into the George Washington steamer on Saturday last. It was satisfactorily proved before the Board of Inspectors, that at the time of the riotousness, the George Washington was berthed near the Maryland shore as she still does.

Advice from Santa Fe, a month later, has been received by the arrival at Independence, Mo., of the mail train, which, on the 1st, laid

[illegible]

For a year or so, Mr. Nathan C. Paine, of Westfield, Mass., has been traveling in the same office circuit. His experience has led him to the conclusion that nothing could save his life but the removal of the disease early, and a few days since Mr. Paine was in Springfield, and submitted to the operation, which was performed while he was under the influence of the "Cure for Cancer."

HARTFORD BURIAL RIT—Bishop of Hartford, has published a letter, in the paper, in which he says that he denies that he was asked to give a service for Father Brady, in front of the church, and says it is an absurd place, being a sidewalk of the street, for such a purpose. He says the church belongs to him, that desired by the Bishop was to be paid to the building of parties kind, so that the bishop should have attached candidate from the cabinet of the case of Othello Barker vs. The Jet the Railroad Company. Judge Burk the Clark County Circuit, has de-by law of said company, regarding re-tends to produce evidence that the traveling on their road, is a nec-

[illegible]

and that the plaintiff Barker, re-stated that he has been shown some fine spec-of Justice of the Peace, who twenty dollars damages to the plaintiff because of the rate of the company's cars on their cars. Buckner is a car; applied for, and offered to pay for on defendant's cars.

Rev. Horatio Potter, D. D., was in Provisional Bishop of the diocese of New York, on the 224 side, with solemn and his money, which being refused, he swore, pointed it at the cashier, and on payment. While he was threatening, a clerk slipped on through the door and returned in a few minutes with Marshal McKinstry, who unlocked and marched the belligerent captain to the open air to cool off.

[illegible]

